

Tired of the same old CME?

Yearning for your NIPDD experience?

AFMRD Presents NIPDD +

a new, advanced, interactive program for NIPDD graduates

- What is your program worth? Engage in advanced finance exercises that demonstrate the value of your residency program.
- How do you negotiate? Address the challenge of real world confrontations in residency management.
- How do you thrive, not just survive? Dr. Brian Wong, family physician, nationally known speaker, and CEO of The Bedside Trust, will be a featured speaker and workshop facilitator.

Conserve CME dollars and time by attending this new, one-day conference conveniently scheduled on the day before the annual AAFP Program Directors Workshop. Includes presentations by the NIPDD Academic Council and Dr. Brian Wong.

Who may register? Any NIPDD graduate who is working in a family medicine residency Registration is limited to 20 participants.

*What is included? Your $575 registration fee includes:
CME credit for presentations by the Academic Council and Dr. Brian Wong (determination of credit is pending)
Breakfast and lunch
Does not include registration for the Program Directors Workshop*

*When and where? Saturday, June 5, 2010, at the Westin Crown Center in Kansas City
Breakfast will begin at 7:30.
The sessions will end at 5:00 followed by a Dutch treat dinner with the members of the Academic Council.*

How do I register? You may register online and pay by credit card or by check. Register online at <https://www.afmrd.org/i4a/ams/conference/conference.cfm?conferenceID=91>

For more information, contact Sam Pener by email or by phone at 800-274-2237, ext 6707.

