Join the American Association for Primary Care Endoscopy for their CME Conference and Membership Meeting in San Antonio on November 3-4, 2017.

Katie Hartl Joins the AFMRD Board

There were eight qualified candidates for the Resident Representative to the AFMRD Board of Directors at the National Conference of Family Medicine Residents and Medical Students. Thank you to those who answered the call to encourage residents to run for this position.

Katie Hartl, MD, was selected to serve as the 2017-2018 Resident Representative to the AFMRD Board of Directors. Dr. Hartl is a PGY-2 at the University of Arizona Family Medicine Residency in Tucson, Arizona.

It all takes place at the Hotel Contessa - right on the world-renowned Riverwalk! Earn Prescribed Credits while learning from some of the most advanced practitioners in primary care endoscopy.

The American Association for Primary Care Endoscopy (AAPCE) is also accepting proposals for presentations at the 2017 AAPCE CME Conference. Visit their website for more information.

Dr. Hartl has a strong interest in academic medicine and is passionate about resident education and wellness. Welcome, Katie!

CERA Survey

CERA, the CAFM Educational Research Alliance, is now accepting proposals for research questions for a survey of family medicine program directors that will go out in October 2017.

The upcoming survey of family medicine program directors will collect demographic information in addition to submitted questions. Priority will be given to research question proposals that are likely to result in high-quality, peer-reviewed publications.

Once projects are approved, experienced researchers will join each project team to help refine questions, facilitate analysis, and prepare and submit manuscripts.

Click here to learn more and submit your proposal by September 1, 2017.

Nominations

The American Academy of Family Physicians (AAFP) and the Association of Family Medicine Residency Directors (AFMRD) invite residency directors, program faculty, residents, and the AAFP constituent chapters to submit names for consideration for the 2018 Nikitas J. Zervanos Outstanding Program Director Award.

Nominations will be accepted through September 30, 2017. Nominations are accepted only through the online nomination form. Find more information here.
